I go on a holiday and take with me...

You are at Narvik HomeParc Mooi Zutendaal.
For a stay at our park we recommend you bring five important things: your senses!

For instance: your eyes. They allow you to see the vast forests of Limburg in the spring, awakening from a long winters' sleep. In the summer, your eyes will follow the pleasant hustle and bustle at the park, with all its guests in holiday mood. In the fall, your eyes help you while looking for chestnuts to roast with family and friends. And what about the winter? Then, your eyes will do nothing but gaze at the beautiful winter wonderland extended around you.

Your hearing is not less important during your stay. How else would you hear the typical sound of the woodpecker, building its nest at the top of an oak tree? And how else would you hear the charming laugh of a perfectly happy child hurtling down the slide? Or how would you be able to perceive the creaking of a branch, which, during a walk in the forest, suddenly makes you turn and become face to face with a deer?

And then there is the sense of smell, even so important. Take a seat on your patio and enjoy the aromas of the fresh, still warm bread that you bought at the park store. During a walk in the surroundings, immerse yourself in the scents of the trees and the forest. And indulge your nose by cooking a fragrant meal for family and friends in your villa or chalet.

The taste is fully satisfied in Restaurant "Mooi Parkzicht", centrally located in Narvik HomeParc Mooi Zutendaal. Tickle your taste with a nice Belgian specialty beer. Experience the fresh Carpaccio. Allow a mouthful of chocolate ice-cream slowly melt on your tongue. Immerse yourself in the exuberant Belgian way of living.

Often wrongly underestimated, is the sense of touch. Because with your skin you will feel the intense heat of the sauna in your own Narvik Villa. With your skin you feel the rough bark of the ancient beech tree next to your accommodation. With your skin, you feel the freshly fallen snow on a beautiful December morning.

Experience life.
